SRI LANKA

The International Association for Quality Education

(IAFQE) is a Sri Lanka-based non-profit organization committed to advancing the quality of education across South Asia and beyond, in alignment with Sustainable Development Goal 4: Quality Education.

The primary objective of the association is “enhance the quality of early childhood, primary, and secondary education by empowering STREAM education, employability skills, entrepreneurship skills, green education, and mindfulness to build multi-talented global citizens with 21st-century skills and spiritual well-being.

Vijaybhoomi University

Vijaybhoomi University (VU) is India's first liberal professional university, fostering an interdisciplinary learning environment that blends management, technology, law and creativity. VU emphasizes experiential learning, industry integration, and ethical leadership, preparing students to become responsible professionals. Located in the scenic Western Ghats, the university offers a unique, student-centric education model that encourages innovation and critical thinking. VU is dedicated to producing professionals who can drive positive change in society while maintaining a commitment towards sustainable, responsible, technological, social and management practices.

Objective of the Conference

To establish international platforms and networks that empower educators—including teachers, principals, and educational leaders—in implementing STEAM education.

To create global avenues for the exchange of best practices, research findings, and innovative ideas that promote the integration of STEAM education within the school system.

To develop international networks for sharing best practices in fostering employability, entrepreneurship, green education, and mindfulness in schools, addressing the evolving challenges of modern society.

To build global platforms for disseminating best practices, research insights, and innovative strategies aimed at equipping children with 21st-century skills and enhancing their overall spiritual well-being (understood not as a specific religious or spiritual practice, but as the holistic quality of human existence).

To recognize and honor the dedicated contributions of educators for their innovations, research, dissemination of best practices, and unwavering commitment to quality education.

To acknowledge and celebrate the outstanding achievements of schools for their educational leadership, innovation, and contributions toward advancing quality education.
